

Make a difference this Eid by joining thousands of Muslims across the state to spread the joys of Eid to your neighbors of other faiths!

EID GREETINGS TO YOUR NEIGHBORS INSTRUCTIONS

1) Pick up at least 5 Eid Greetings Cards (find a high-quality versions at your local mosque or a printable version at cairseattle.org/Eid) for at least 5 of your neighbors, and THIS page of instructions for yourself.

- a. Feel free to pick up extra cards and instructions from your local mosque and give to your extended family so they too can share the joy of Eid with their own neighbors of other faiths.

2) Buy 5 candy bars from a local grocery store.

3) Attach each Eid Greetings Card to a candy bar (use ribbon, blue, tape, etc.) and sign the back of the card.

4) Take photos of your Eid gift bundle (Candy + Eid Greetings Cards) and post them onto your social media pages. Hashtag #Eid2017 on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc. Your story may be picked up by local news channels!

5) Visit at least 5 neighbors near you, introduce yourself and your family, wish them a “Happy Eid” and offer them the Eid gift bundle (Candy + Eid Greetings Card). This year, make new friends in your neighborhood by reaching out to neighbors you haven’t met before. Be sure to visit neighbors who have different political views or have biases against Islam/Muslims, so they get to know you and your family personally. Have your family, especially kids, come with you.

- a. Important: Consider inviting the neighbors to your home for an upcoming Eid party, birthday party or other gathering at your home with your family.
